Stream, Sea Fishing Reports Show Angling 'Tops' Now

Here's the latest fishing roundup from both fresh-water and salt water angling spots.

The top local streams, according to the Automobile Club of Southern California, seem to be the west fork of the San Gabriel River; Jenks Lake, Arrowhead Lake and Santa Ana River in neighboring San Bernardino County; and Upper Seppe River, Howard Creek, Matilija Creek, Matilija Reservoir and the north fork of Matilija Creek in Ventura County.

Some good catenas have been reported on salmon eggs and worms in the Owens River at Chalk Bluff, Five Bridges, Laws Brigs and south to Big Pine.

Trout fishing at Crowley Lake has been rated good also.

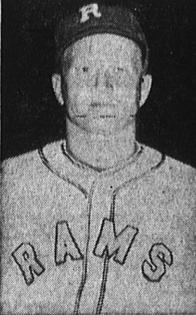

From Long Beach's Pierpoint Landing comes this report on sea swimming fish:

San Clemente Island — calico and bull bass fishing excellent, with anglers getting full limits every day. Barracuda now beginning to come in.

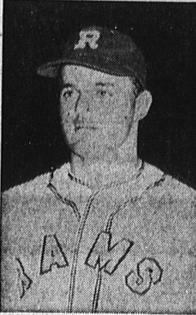

Catalina Island — Fishing at peak from now on with log barracuda coming in steadily. White sea bass also excellent and very consistent. Yellowtail fishing good.

Local Banks — Barracuda catches very heavy. Yellowtail fishing improving daily on horse-shoe kelp.

Live bait barge fishing — Hall but runs still good, with mackerel and plenty of kingfish.

RAMS, 3-M's PREPARE RIP-SNORTER HERE

Featuring a star-studded list of pro football greats, the Los Angeles Rams softball — yes, softball — squad will take on the local 3-M nine Tuesday night at Torrance Park for an exhibition benefit game. All proceeds will go to the YMCA building fund.

Men like Verle Lillywhite and Frank Gifford will be shagging the files for the Rams as they trade swats with the hot Midland Rubber crew.

On the roster for the locals, who also have a classy list of performers, is Jerry Jackson, once playing with a Texas club under the "sponsorship" of the St. Louis Browns. Jerry suffered a broken foot and was forced to give it up temporarily.

Also, the pitching-catching combo of Dan and Dick Guy will wear the 3-M colors.

All proceeds from the fracas will go to the building fund of the "Y." A 50-cent donation will be collected, it was stated.

Neither ball club received payment for the performance.

Double Bills Slated for Week's Frays

On tap for Tuesday and Wednesday Old Men's Slow Pitch softball league games are the Hollywood Riviers Sportsmen and the Rotary Club, and the Moose and the Optimists at McMaster Park for Tuesday and Lutheran Men, and the American Legion and the Lions vs. the Walteria Business Men the following night at Walteria diamond.

All first games get under way at 7 o'clock with the second slated to start around 8:30.

The American Legion nipped the Sportsmen 14-13 in a rough-and-tumble skirmish last week for the best game of the newly created league. The Moose men run roughshod over the Lutheran Men, who have just organized their crew, 13-2 and the Optimist Club blasted out a 13-4 victory from the Lions Club.

Lovelady, N-Supply Tussel Tops Card

Featuring the hurling of Art Huntzman and Al Coast, two undefeated Class A League squads will tangle under the Torrance Park lights tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock as the second week of sparkling municipal softball gets under way.

Top billing for the evening goes to the Lovelady Hardware.

National Supply fracas slated as a second game starting at 8:30 tomorrow. Art Huntzman, who hurled his National Supply crew to a shutout last week, will be matching throws with Al Coast, who gave up but one run before he traded off in the fourth Friday night.

Preliminary game on the evening card at Torrance Park is a showdown between Harvey Machine and the 3-M's.

Over at Walteria Park the Local No. 1414 nine will meet the Hi-Shear outfit, both of which barely dropped their initial hits last week. At 8:30 the Walteria diamond, the Palos Verdes Merchants will take on the Longren Aeros, with the Merchants holding a slight edge to wax their foes.

Friday night tussles saw the Shamrock Cafe boys rock the 4 the Walteria Business Men 11-4, and Strescon hop out an 8-2 victory over the Merchants.

The night before National Electric nudged Amroco 3-9 and Lovelady knocked Harvey Machine 8-1.

T. P. Tipton hurled a two-hitter for the Shamrock aggregation as his squad went on to drub the Businessmen 11-4. Two walks issued by Tipton, one to Otto Stiefel in the second and another to Bob Lemaster in the sixth, were both turned into runs for the losers.

In the second tiff out Walteria way chucker Steve Skowronski rolled a one-hitter but issued nine free passes to the Walteria Merchants; nevertheless, the Strescon nine went on to an 8-2 win.

Third baseman John Mendez was the bright spot for the winners as he bopped out two for four and tallied three times. A double-play in the first frame by the Merchants started the game out in royal fashion as pitcher Bill Hart snagged a sharp bingle by outfielder Jim Taylor, tagged at first, then tossed to third baseman Dick Ferguson who picked off second sacker Norm Skelton.

Lovelady was too sharp for the Harvey Machine men and after a slow initial stanza the game was on. A series of overthrows to the first and second basemen cost the Machine lads at least three of the four runs tallied in the frame.

Other games this week will find Shamrock meeting Strescon and Local No. 1414 taking on Walteria Business Men Wednesday at the Torrance Park, first game starting at 7 p.m.

No admission is charged to the city league frays.
